LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Attorney Ellsworth Ingalls returned yesterday from a business trip to Santa Fe.

R. G. Marmon and wife of Luzana, N. M., are in for a brief visit to Albuquerque.

Manager Adams of the Alvarado, who is sick with pneumonia, is reported improving.

R. E. Pondwell, manager of the Silver City ice plant, stopped off here yesterday on his way home after a week's visit to Santa Fe.

Frank Owen, manager of the Santa Fe Electric Light company, came to Albuquerque last night. He returned this morning.

Louis A. McRae, whose engagement to Miss Hayden is soon to terminate in marriage, was in the city yesterday from Magdalena.

Regular services at Temple Albert tonight (Friday) at 7:45. Dr. Kaplan will lecture on "The Power of Faith." Everybody is welcome.

Jo E. Sheridan, territorial coal mine inspector, who spent yesterday in the city, left last night for San Antonio and the Caribbea coal mines.

R. C. Garrett of Socorro, arrived in Albuquerque last night from Santa Fe where he was at one time an employee of the territorial penitentiary.

Col. G. W. Prichard came down from Santa Fe last night and will leave for Silver City this evening. Tomorrow night he will join Congressman Andrews in addressing the republican rally in that town.

The New Mexican says: Arthur Everett of Albuquerque, proprietor of a jewelry store in the Duke city, is spending a week's vacation in Santa Fe. He is a guest during his visit here at the Palace hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Powers and child, after a pleasant visit here to relatives and friends, left yesterday on their return to Washington, D. C., where Mr. Powers is employed in the government printing office.

Jack Levy has donated ten of his tumbler pigeons to Prof. Baldwin, who will take them up with him Sunday in his balloon, and at a thousand feet will turn them loose. It will be quite a novel sight.

A union meeting of the missionary societies of all the city churches was held this afternoon in the parlors of the First Presbyterian church. There was a good attendance and a special program, including music and a tea added to the enjoyment of those present.

Rev. Hugh A. Cooper, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, after a ten day outing in the Jemez mountains, returned yesterday. Mr. Cooper brought with him a fine pair of antlers the result of his own shooting. He found the mountains full of game and snow drifts.

Ben Strickfadden of Las Vegas is here from the Meadow city on business. Mr. Strickfadden is an enthusiastic sportsman and he generally finishes among the firsts when the Las Vegas Gun club holds its semi-monthly snapper spitting contests at the trap.

J. H. McCutchen, editor of the Industrial Advertiser, returned last night from Santa Fe. He says politics are in a badly mixed condition at the capital, and no one can foreshadow the final result. Catron is determined to stay in the race for territorial council, and his friends believe he will be elected.

Attorney Amado Chavez and family have removed from Santa Fe to Albuquerque and will reside here permanently. They arrived last night and are stopping at the Savoy temporarily. Mr. Chavez was formerly assistant superintendent of public instruction, but resigned the position to enter the legal profession.

The private car of President A. E. Robinson of the Mexican Central was attached to the rear of the delayed No. 7 train this morning. President Robinson was going to the City of Mexico from Chicago. He passed through here two weeks ago for the Windy City. President Robinson's private secretary was in the car with him.

Hon. B. S. Rodey of Porto Rico, where he is the United States federal judge, is in southern Arizona, stopping at Tucson on some private matters. He is expected here some time next week, and after a visit of a few days with Mrs. Rodey and children he will proceed to New York, where he will take a steamer for San Juan, Porto Rico.

Rev. A. G. Harrison, who recently resigned as pastor of the St. John's Episcopal church and visited the southwestern section of Texas, has returned to this city, and is glad to get back to the sunny Rio Grande valley. Rev. Harrison is yet undecided as to his future. In any event, should he go elsewhere Mrs. Harrison and her family will remain here until he gets settled.

David M. White, territorial irrigation engineer, who was here yesterday and last night on political matters, returned to Santa Fe this morning.

ing. He is chairman of the republican central committee of Santa Fe county, and expressed himself very confident that T. B. Catron will be elected to legislature as councillorman from the district composed of Santa Fe and Sandoval counties.

The meeting of ladies this afternoon at the Commercial club for the purpose of forming an auxiliary to the national association for the erection of a suitable memorial to the late Susan B. Anthony, resulted in the formation of a local society. Much enthusiasm was manifested and the interest taken in the matter promises that Albuquerque ladies will do their share in the carrying out of the national scheme.

Allen I. Simonds, who has been in the office of the Alvarado hotel for the past two months, has been assigned to night service at the desk in the place of W. O. Scott, formerly night clerk at the popular hostelry. Mr. Scott, according to report, will shortly depart for his home in Kansas. Mr. Simonds came to Albuquerque from New York and has had considerable experience in the management of hotel desk duties.

On Saturday morning at 9 o'clock the sale of seats for the Lambarde performances of Monday and Tuesday evenings will begin at Matson's. It is expected that the sale will prove a record breaker on account of the rarity of grand opera productions in this portion of the country and the acknowledged excellence of the company. Manager Matson is to be commended for his enterprise in securing for this city such a high class entertainment and it is certain that this will take practical form in the sale of seats.

The wife of T. P. O'Connor, m. p., says: "The American woman has a delicate and bewitching beauty and no continent can boast of girls so beautiful as an American girl of 17." Spoken like a man, b'gosh!

A pair of our dainty felt Juliettes with fur trimming will make your feet comfortable for the whole winter. They come in black, brown, red or green and cost only $1.25 and $1.50 a pair at C. May's shoe store, 314 West Railroad avenue.

Don't forget Prof. Baldwin's flight to the clouds at Traction park Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

The football game between Socorro School of Mines and University of New Mexico will be quick and interesting. The game will be called at 2:45 Saturday at Traction Park.

YOU may think you can get along very well without a piano, but if you will consider a moment you will realize that with a thoroughly good piano in your home there is musical enjoyment for you without end.

A good piano will make your home twice as attractive, provide unlimited pleasure for you and your friends, besides furnishing a safe investment that has little depreciation because of the high reputation each make we sell enjoys.

Isn't it a mistake to put off owning a piano any longer, especially when there is no reason under the sun for the delay?

Why should you delay? Not because of terms, because we have told you again and again that payments may be arranged to meet your wishes. Not because of any doubt about the quality of the piano you may select, for that is guaranteed by us.

If there is any other reason we don't know of it, and if you will come in and tell us what it is we believe we will be able to clear the difficulty away.

When you next go shopping why not call here and select the piano that suits you?

Awaiting your call we are

The Swell Coat of the Season

A swagger Style that is enjoying a great meed of popularity.

A GREAT VARIETY OF SPLENDID COATS, RANGING FROM BLACK OR GREY FABRICS TO THE LIGHT COLORED FANCY PATTERNS

$12 to $30

This overcoat, known as The Cavalier, is more snappy in style than any presented in many years. It is the decided favorite of the season. It is thoroughly gented; yet very distinctive in its lines. The back is a plain box effect, sharply cut in at the waist, with the skirts flared. In a H. S. & M. overcoat, the style is there to stay, by reason of the fact that all the fine points of tailoring are brought out by careful "working-in" of seams and edges. We have a hundred other styles, some higher; some lower. Don't buy your overcoat without first looking at ours.
